TRIBECA

The Brandy Library
 Hundreds of whiskeys and brandies, plus resident jazz pianist Joel Forrester. 25 N. Moore St., nr. Varick St.; 212-226-5545

Macao Trading Co.
 Even when the nabe is otherwise dead, this downstairs party gets borderline debauched. 311 Church St., nr. Lispenard St.; 212-431-8750

B Flat
 Asian-inflected drinks to the tune of live jazz from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. 277 Church St., nr. Franklin St.; 212-219-2970

Bubble Lounge
 The free Tiny Bubbles party includes a burlesque show. 228 W. Broadway, nr. N. Moore St.; 212-431-3433

The Yard
 Start off your evening at the Soho Grand's newly reopened outdoor refuge. 310 W. Broadway, nr. Grand St.; 212-965-3271

Silver Lining
 Enjoy bespoke cocktails while listening to live jazz among a grown-up crowd. 75 Murray St., nr. Greenwich St.; 212-513-1234

Weather Up
 Catch scheduled readings, sometimes from the good-looking staff, in the back room. 159 Duane St., nr. W. Broadway; 212-766-3202

FINANCIAL DISTRICT

Fresh Salt
 A nautical den where you can throw back beers and actually hear your drinking partners speak. 146 Beekman St., nr. Front St.; 212-962-0053

Cowgirl Sea-Horse
 What's not to love about $2 tacos and sea-life-themed décor? 259 Front St., at Dover St.; 212-608-7873

Jeremy's Ale House
 Where bras swing from the rafters and buckets of Coors go for $5 at happy hour. 228 Front St., nr. Peck Slip; 212-964-3537

SHO Shaun Hergatt
 The fun post-work crowd is worth the steep cocktail prices. 40 Broad St., nr. Exchange Pl.; 212-809-3993

Vintry Wine & Whiskey
 Serves 100 wines by the glass till 4 a.m. and takes reservations. 57 Stone St., nr. Hanover Sq.; 212-480-9800

Keg No. 229
 Pull your own draft while rooting for your team at this relatively civilized sports bar. 229 Front St., nr. Peck Slip; 212-566-2337

The Iron Horse
 It's free-burger-and-dog night at this unabashedly trashy hole. 32 Cliff St., nr. Fulton St.; 646-546-5426

LOWER EAST SIDE

Parkside Lounge
 Sip discounted $8 Manhattans at the grungy lounge's weekly vinyl swap. 317 E. Houston St., nr. Ave. B; 212-673-6270

169 Bar
 More chill than the weekend's Mardi Gras-like bacchanal, with three-for-$5 oysters until 4 a.m. 169 E. Broadway, nr. Rutgers St.; 646-833-7199

Nurse Bettie
 Burlesque dancers bare (almost) all in this intimate, pin-up-themed spot. 106 Norfolk St., nr. Delancey St.; 212-477-7515

Second Floor on Clinton
 Chase your whiskey with a volume from this speakeasy's library. 67 Clinton St., nr. Rivington St., second fl.; no phone

Top Hops
 A relatively quiet but convivial beer bar with over 700 bottles and twenty taps. 94 Orchard St., nr. Delancey St.; 212-254-4677

Fig. 19
 A step above, figuratively and literally, downstairs hipster dive Home Sweet Home. 131 Chrystie St., nr. Delancey St.; no phone

Marshall Stack
 An ideal lazy Sunday: board games, beers, and Sloppy Joes. 66 Rivington St., at Allen St.; 212-228-4667

WEST VILLAGE

Vin Sur Vingt
 The ambience is as sophisticated as the wine-tasting selection from the Loire Valley and Alsace. 201 W. 11th St., nr. Seventh Ave. S.; 212-924-4442

Anfora
 Producer night features hip winemakers like Arianna Occhipinti. 34 Eighth Ave., nr. Jane St.; 212-518-2722

Marie's Crisis
 Kitschy show tunes and sing-alongs in a subterranean hangout. 59 Grove St., nr. Seventh Ave. S.; no phone

 The Virginia-native-owned spot serves fried catfish and 12 bottles of wine. 94 Ave. C, nr. 6th St.; 212-228-2972

Death + Company
 The craft cocktails taste even better when you don't suffer a two-hour Saturday wait to get one. 433 E. 6th St., nr. Ave. A; 212-388-0882

MIDTOWN WEST

Barcelona Bar
 Trivia night and 100-plus silly-fun shots (the Harry Potter involves fire and a sorcerer's hat). 923 Eighth Ave., nr. 54th St.; 212-245-3212

Rudy's Bar + Grill
 Wash down free hot dogs with Rudy's own blonde ale amid a relatively chill crowd. 627 Ninth Ave., nr. 44th St.; 646-707-0890

32 Karaoke
 Have a BYOB sing-along (till 5 a.m.) without the weekend throngs of students. 32 W. 32nd St., nr. Broadway; 212-290-0085

Casellula
 A reliably chill post-theater wine bar with cheese flights galore. 401 W. 52nd St., nr. Ninth Ave.; 212-247-8137

The 21 Club
 The updated bar's a nice spot for drinks after MoMA's free night. 21 W. 52nd St., nr. Sixth Ave.; 212-582-7200

Má Pêche
 A mature weekend scene with smart cocktails. Also, cookies! 15 W. 56th St., nr. Sixth Ave.; 212-757-5878

The Rum House
 The afternoon Hell in the Heavens party has a Bourbon Street vibe. 228 W. 47th St., nr. Broadway; 646-490-6924

MIDTOWN EAST

P.J. Clarke's
 Enjoy the 130-year-old's suds and cranky bartenders, sans the fratty weekend crowds. 915 Third Ave., at 55th St.; 212-317-1616

The Campbell Apartment
 The twenties railroad tycoon's office is well worth a post-work drink. Grand Central Terminal; 212-953-0409

The Ginger Man
 Taste brews from gravity casks at this capacious spot. 11 E. 36th St., nr. Fifth Ave.; 212-532-3740
